Per Elmo Kurz O. F. M.

School...

DESIGN FOR LIVING . . . WE FIRST APPEAR AS A SKETCH OF OUR FUTURE SELVES . . . OUR CONSTRUCTION
IS BEGUN BY OUR TEACHERS . . . WE, THE STUDENTS, ARE OUR OWN ARRANGEMENT . . . WE ACHIEVE PERSPECTIVE
AND DEPTH AND THE ETERNAL DIMENSION THROUGH RELIGION . . . WE ARE FORMED IN THE PHYSICAL ASCESIS OF ATHLETICS . . . THE INDIVIDUAL PATTERN OF THE PERSONALITY EMERGES IN SOCIAL CONTACT . . . THE SUBTLE SHADES OF MATURING PERSONALITY DEVELOPS IN THE VARIETY OF ACTIVITIES . . .

School . . . DESIGN FOR LIVING . . . WE ARE SHAPED IN THAT DESIGN!

The Marching Band

This year, the Quincy College band, under the direction of Mr. A. L. Phillips, has reached a peak. For each game, Mr. Phillips arranged new formations—pictures of travel vehicles, of houses, of drinking vessels. The band climaxed the season with a moon and star design done with band lights against a blacked-out field by the 400 musicians, who collaborated with the Q.C. band. The band terminated a year of hard work with a brilliant concert on May 13.

FINE ARTS

The Arts

One of the basic motivations in human endeavor is the need for self expression. This self expression takes place on many levels, but we believe that the humanly most delightful forms of self expression are found in the arts. At Quincy college the arts, the world of the artist, writer, musician and actor, occupy a special place in the life of the student. Indeed much of the activity, interest and accomplishments at Quincy college occurs in the field of Fine Arts.

Quintones

A very profound, if not well known philosopher once said, "The music of the past cannot satisfy the demands of modern society, temperament and individual." At Quincy college a group of individuals did satisfy their taste for progressive music when the Quintones were formed. Under arrangements and direction of Chick Sponder, the Quintones started from complete unknownness and achieved a position of high esteem in the Quincy area. With their presentations on the annual chorus tour, they demonstrated to the people of three states that modern music can be listenable, enjoyable and, above all, worthy.

DESERT SONG AND TELEPHONE

Two of the outstanding productions by Mr. Cloyce Enlow and his Quincy college chorus during the past year were Sigmund Romberg's famous operetta, "The Desert Song," and Carlo Menotti's modern opero, "The Telephone." The majority of the critics who witnessed the "Desert Song," proclaimed it ranked with the top professional productions.

Mask and Gown

After a comparatively inactive year in the '49-'50 season, The Mask and Gown Society asserted their rightful place in the field of Fine Arts at Quincy college when they presented a magnificent, emotionally packed production of William Wister Haine's Broadway thrilled "Command Decision."

Mask and Gown opened the 1950-51 season with an ably played and delightful comedy, "Mr. Barry's Etchings."

Studios were re-decorated, offices expanded, a complete Langworth Transcription Library acquired, and all studio equipment replaced with the finest instruments manufactured by the Ganes Rodio Company.

Because of the spirit of cooperation and initiative in Q.C.I.M., there is no doubt that Q.C.I.M. will soon become W.V.Q.C., the Radio Voice of Quincy College on the FM band.

Falcon

It has been said that the purpose of a newspaper is to reflect and mould public opinion. But to have done this in a bi-weekly college tabloid is quite an accomplishment. Yet it seems as though The Falcon has done it. Indeed much comment, both good and unfavorable, was the result of the Falcon's editorials. But, we believe that constructive thinking is good.

Aside from this, these individuals who do the actual mechanical work on the Falcon might be considered among the most hard working and loyal persons in Quincy college.

Alpha Psi Omega

Special recognition for outstanding work in the field of dramatics is given by the national honorary dramatic fraternity. Dramatics, with the aid of Alpha Psi Omega, is on the way up at Quincy college. The group has certainly added to the Arts group. The Rev. Vincent Elsen, O.F.M., is the faculty adviser for the honorary fraternity.

Token

Complexity and conflict of opinion was the result of the publishing of the Token, Quincy college's literary magazine. The hard biting fiction of the realistic vein and poetry by the school's imagist group, brought varied reactions from all sources.

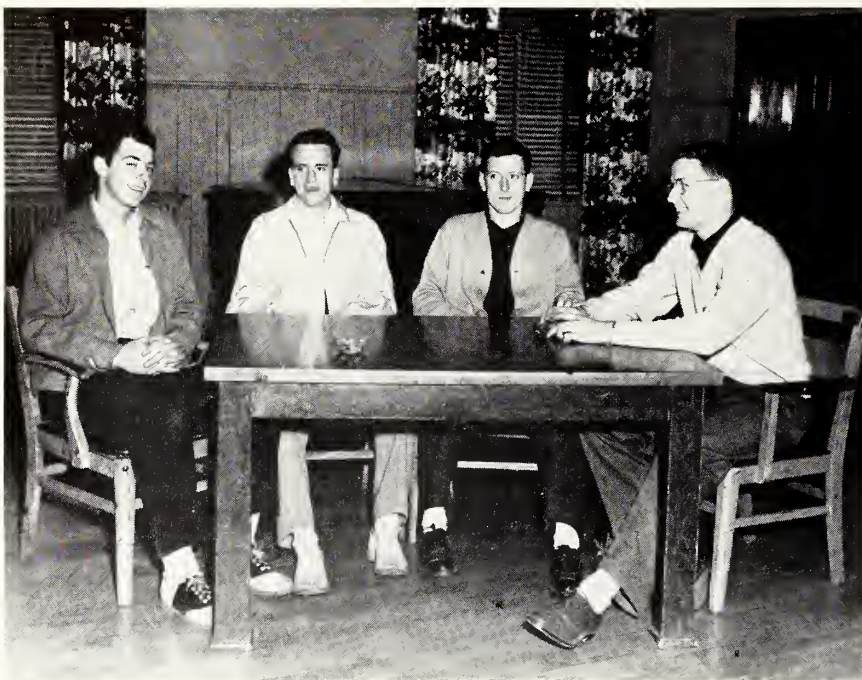

ORGANIZATIONS

Social Organizations

The organization of Quincy College offers a practical plan for the training of individuals toward a goal of public leadership and wholesome private life and activity. The various fraternities, sororities, department clubs and societies give the student an opportunity to express his talents in all fields of social and administrative ability. There are events to plan for, offices to be filled, and plenty of hard work and imagination to engage his best efforts.

Every member learns the value of cooperation and feels the pleasure and satisfaction gained from the knowledge of achievement—of doing something worthwhile and contributing the general welfare of the College as a whole.

Alpha Delta Gamma

Eta chapter of Alpha Delta Gamma National Catholic Fraternity was founded at Quincy college, in April, 1947. Its purpose: to unite congenially minded men in a brotherhood of love and respect, to develop Christian ideals, and to foster the interests of the college.

As usual the Alpha Delts handled the annual homecoming bonfire, they initiated their pledges, they gave their quota of dances and smokers. Group attendance of the fraternity at Friday Mass and Communion was continued.

KAPPA SIGMA KAPPA OFFICERS (sitting): Jack Hieber, President; (standing): Pete Rahill, Vice-President; F. Canway, Sgt. at Arms, Tom Gallagher, Treasurer, Barney Janes, Secretary.

Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity was organized in 1944. Its purpose: to stimulate intellectual growth in harmony with the educational traditions of Quincy College, to promote constructive social activity, and to foster true concepts of Christian ideals within the membership.

This organization is the sponsor of the "Mississippi Bell Trophy," an annual token of victory in the football battle between Quincy college and Culver-Stockton college. Although this year's game wound up in a tie, the College retained possession because of the victory won last year.

Kappa Mu Sigma is a service organization which has for its purpose the betterment of the individual morally, physically, educationally, and socially—all this to be achieved by a promotion of athletics and public service in school activities. Composed mainly of lettermen, the organization sponsored the exhibition basketball game between the Bradley All-Stars and a team made up of Quincy college men. Kappa Mu was in charge of the entertainment for the visiting De Paul University basketball squad which played in the opening game of the new Quincy College Memorial Gymnasium.

Pi Lambda Sigma

In 1947 the Eta Chapter of Pi Lambda Sigma, a national Catholic Sorority was founded at Quincy college. Its purpose: to stimulate the social, intellectual, ethical and spiritual life of its members and to carry on the policy of the national organization.

In traditional fashion the Pi Lambs have carried on with higher types of social activity. In conjunction with the Alpha Delts the Pi Lambs sponsored the first annual outdoor living rosary in honor of Our Lady of Fatima. Combining with Phi Kaps they sponsored the April Showers formal dance at Club Casino. On May 4, the Pi Lambs placed a wreath on the head of the Chapel Virgin.

Student Senate

The student senate was formed in 1949, to enable the students actively to regulate all student affairs. Each student organization is represented by membership in the student senate; the independent students also have representation.

This group of student representatives is the liaison between the students and the administration in student affairs.

Besides assisting with the homecoming activities, the Senate has worked hand in hand with the administration to foster high ideals at Quincy College.

Mr. Troy Dorris

Organized in 1949, the Biology club is pledged to aid majors and minors in biological sciences in school and after graduation, and to promote scholarship and fellowship among its members. Towards this end a plan of lectures and discussions has been developed.

Among the several lectures that were presented during the year, the outstanding one was the annual public lecture held in April. Mr. Frank Belrose from the State Conservation Office presided. The annual field trip was taken early in the month of May to Southern Illinois.

The Third Order of St. Francis

"All the world loves a lover." That is why St. Francis of Assisi is the popular saint that he is. That is why thousands of sincere men and women look to him as their ideal. His greatest contribution to society is the formation of the Third Order of Brothers and Sisters of Penance. Since this real religious order of lay men and women has been committed to the care of his Friars of the First Order, a flourishing Fraternity of Tertiaries exists here at our Franciscan College.

The aim of Third Order members is to develop a solid Catholic character, by the systematic observance of a simple Rule of Life, approved by Mother Church. Sharing in all the graces and blessings of the glorious Franciscan Family, these Tertiaries find mutual encouragement in the work of self-sanctification by their Fraternity activities.

Holy Name Society

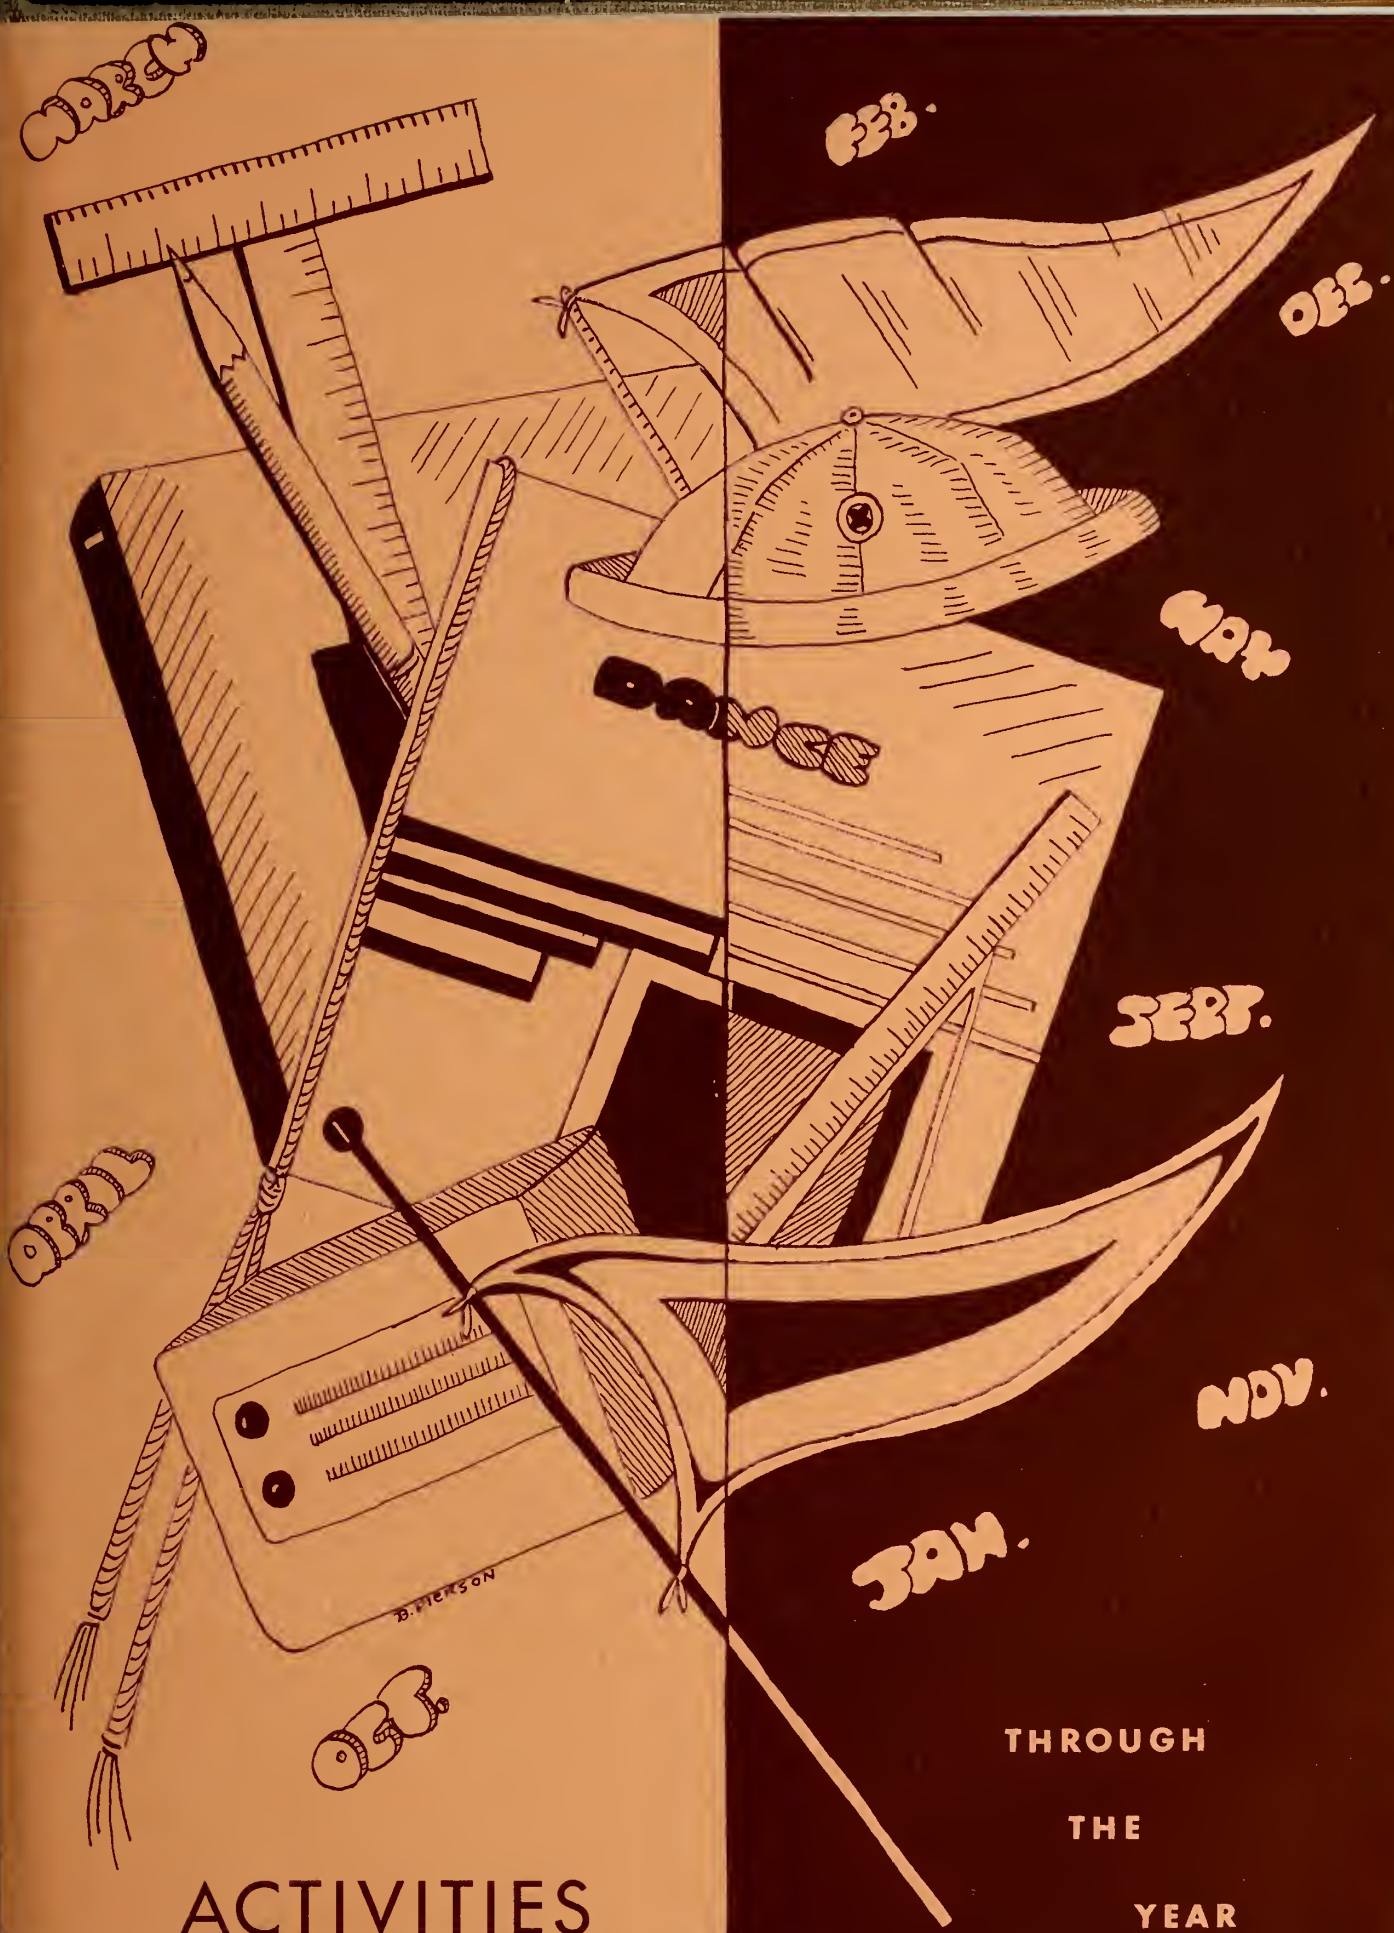

The Holy Name Society was resuscitated this year through the efforts of Fr. Donald Werr, O.F.M. The society started with a membership of forty-five and has steadily increased. Their purpose is to keep the name of Our Lord from being used irreverently as well as receive Holy Communion at least once a month.

The organization is open to any Catholic male student. The Society also engages in charitable work.

Homecoming

Who's got a match? Not yet, little boy. Come tomorrow night and the Alpha Delts will light that huge pile of kindling announcing Quincy College's traditional Homecoming festivities

The Royal Court will be there. And on the following day the King (Kenneth Heitmeier) and Queen (Marilyn Moore) will be introduced at the Homecoming football game and will preside over the Homecoming formal that night.
